MISSOULA COUNTY ELECTIONS OFFICE RECRUITS HUNDREDS OF POSITIONS INTEGRAL TO HOLDING ELECTIONS

Missoula County is seeking election judges for the 2012 election year and beyond! Training is held in February, so please apply today.

If you are registered to vote in Missoula County and enthusiastic about the voting process, you are eligible to be an election judge! To apply, please call (406) 258-4751 or email electioninfo@co.missoula.mt.us with your name and contact information. Training is held in February at the County fairgrounds and there are a variety of daytime and evening classes. To view a list of classes and other information, please visit our election judge webpage.

Missoula County will host four elections in 2012. Two School Elections will be held in the spring, followed by the Presidential Primary in June and General Federal Election in November. In order to support the democratic process, Missoula County is recruiting more than 600 election judges. There are several positions available in addition to election judges, such as polling place managers and poll book judges. Individuals are compensated for their time on Election Day and for training.

Election judges are champions of the election process. They play a crucial role in ensuring the strength and integrity of the voting process and uphold election law. Judges make certain every person qualified to vote is permitted to vote and that every person permitted to vote is qualified to vote.

Please contact Rebecca Connors, Elections Coordinator at 258-4758 or rconnors@co.missoula.mt.us for more information.
