MISSOULA COUNTY COURTHOUSE CELEBRATES CENTENNIAL

Missoula, MT – The Missoula County Courthouse celebrates its 100th birthday on Monday, July 19th, 2010 from noon to 2:00 p.m. All are welcome to attend the celebration which will feature remarks by County Commissioner Bill Carey and Dr. H. Raphael Chacon on courthouse architect A.J. Gibson. Representatives from the Missoula Art Museum, the Historical Museum at Fort Missoula, the Missoula Historic Preservation Office, and the Montana Museum of Art & Culture will be available to speak about the historic Paxson paintings in the Courthouse entryway, the Paxson jacket display in the rotunda, historic items on display about A.J. Gibson, and other historic features of the Courthouse and front lawn. Russ Nasset will play music after Commissioner Carey and Dr. Chacon's remarks. Cake and refreshments will be provided. Please call the County Commissioners' Office at 258-4877 for more information.
